I had an opportunity last month to again visit Ohio and have developed some new information and have other updates. Perhaps the most important piece of info I found was the death certificate for Homer E. Yoder (YR142238). In that document his mother's maiden name is listed as Hannah Ridge. This confirms that the Jacob H. Yoder was the same Jacob Yoder that you listed as being married by the Rev. John Wallace in your General Courthouse and Area Records from Lancaster, PA. Hopefully this helps confirm that he was the son of John Yoder (YR1422). It appears that they both moved from PA to OH about the same time and perhaps together. Jacob H. moved sometime between 1847 - 1849 and John appears to have moved between the time his wife died in Juniata Pa in 1846 and 1850. John's two brothers (Jacob and Nicholas) were already there. What do you think?

Another interesting fact, I was always concerned about the information on Homer E. Yoder--mainly because his name was so different from all his brothers and sisters and the fact that census records have an NR in the relationship column (was that Not Related or Not Recorded?). After I found his death certificate and saw his full name (Homer Eddie), it dawned on me that minister that married his brother John (my great great grandfather) in the same year that he was born was named Homer Eddy. Perhaps a close friend of the family?-- Ed Yoder, June 2000

"We now know who Rachel Dague Yoder is. She was the granddaughter of Andreas and Maria Meschter. Andreas immigrated to Philadelphia from Durlach, Baden, Wurttemberg in 1753 with his brother, Friedrich, my ancestor. We have that line going back to the early 17th century, if you need it.

"Rachel's parents were Andrew Dague and Ann Good/Gude. Our Dague family historian has a source (from Milo Hamilton -- I guess she means from a book that Hamilton wrote) that gives Rachel's birth as about 1795 in Salisbury Twp., Lancaster Co. It also mentions that Rachel married Christian Yoder. Her father mentioned her in his will, "Rachel, the wife of Christian Yoder." Apparently there is a discrepancy somewhere in the dates of birth. This date would make Rachel about 19 years older than Christian.

"I doubt that Rachel was Brethren. Our line from Michael Dague, son of our immigrant ancestor, Friedrich, and nephew of Andreas, was the only Brethren line that I know of among the Dagues. Michael Dague's wife Margaret's parents, Gabriel Schweinhardt and Esther Neff Schweinhardt were Brethren. Margaret's grandparents, Jacob and Catherine Neff were Mennonites who became Brethren not long after they immigrated to Philadelphia in 1717."- From: Cathy Martin <martin.abba@juno.com>

Andrew married Anna Matilda Good born Mar 6. 1845 and died June 12, 1914. Andrew grew up on a farm in Lancaster, PA and falsified his age to join the Civil War. Andrew became a drummer boy (we had a certificate stating his service). When Andrew and Anna married they moved to Philadelphia, PA near her brother. Andrew and Anna had 8 children (two were stillborn).- some details on children inserted above.
